NO SURPRISE TO COMPANY HEADS

Action Is Not Entirely Unexpected At the Chicago Offices

(Associated Press)

TRENTON, N. J., Aug. 25—Wilson and Company, Inc., one of the largest packing establishments in the country has been placed in the hands of a receiver.

On complaint of Maurice I. Klein of Newark, vice chancellor John M. Backes has temporarily named state banking commissioner Edward Maxson, receiver for the company.

In a lengthy complaint attached to the insolvency charge of Klein it is alleged that the big packing concern is indebted to various banking institutions for nearly $30,000,000 and has a funded debt outstanding of $47,177,000.

CHICAGO, Aug. 25—Appointment of a receiver for Wilson and Company Inc., Chicago packers at Trenton, N. J., was not entirely unexpected it was said at the offices of the company today, but official advice to that effect had not been received.

Thomas E. Wilson, president of the company, is in New York city.

CHICAGO, Aug. 25—Wilson and company, Inc., Chicago packers will contest the receivership proceedings begun at Trenton, N. J., Thomas E. Wilson president of the company announced in a telegram to his offices today. He is in New York city.

Mr. Wilson's message stated that the proceedings had been started by a small stockholder and without notice to the company. His telegram follows:

"Although no notice or paper of any receiver or receivership has been served on Wilson & Co., the company is advised that an ex parte application of a small stockholder Saturday afternoon, before the New Jersey equity court, Edward Maxson, superintendent of banks and insurance for the state of New Jersey, was appointed by the court as receiver for the company.

"Wilson and company will contest the receivership proceedings."

SEPARATION PAPERS ARE FILED ON COUNT

(Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Aug. 25—Separation suit papers finally have been served on Count Gosta Morner, of Sweden and Chicago, by his countess of a few months, the former Peggy Hopkins Joyce, it became known today.

It also became known that the count had withdrawn the complaint in his action seeking an annulment of his marriage to the actress, which took place in Atlantic City last June. It was said that this was the result of warnings of the countess' attorneys that some of the allegations against her in the papers sworn to by him were punishable in court.

The progress of the count's suit now awaits filing of a revised complaint.

Service of the papers in the separation suit, in which the actress charged non-support, was effected yesterday as the count alighted from a motor car at Forest Hill, Long Island.

COUNTESS ESCAPES GILDED CAGE.

COUNTESS MILDRED TRESHATY

"I was merely a bird in a gilded cage," asserts Countess Mildred Treshaty, formerly Beverley West, of the New York stage, in asking a New York divorce from Count Serge Treshaty, former Russian nobleman, now president of a motor corporation, with an income of $50,000 a year. She declares he locked her in each morning when he went to his office and kept her locked in until his return in the evening.

GARREN ADDRESSES 'Y' BIBLE CLASS

In the course of his address to the Y. M. C. A. Bible class Sunday, as based on some of the experiences of St. Paul as found in the 18th chapter of Acts, Prof. J. D. Garren, declared that just as Paul "wrought" at the tent maker's trade, all men should labor, and that Christian messages came after work and not without work.

"Those who have the thought of gain behind their appeals to the lost, will not be instrumental in saving anybody," was one of the expressions of the speaker.

Prof. Garren made it plain that just working and making a livelihood, as honorable and important as that activity is, does not fill the full measure of life. He said all should be able to recommend Christ as the world's Savior. He said that furnishing employment for others was not enough, that employers should have the right spirit. The speaker said that is at the last day, employers should say that they kept the world moving at the expense of human energy, not paid for rightly, that they would be told "verily you had your reward in the world below;" and workers were told that if they loafed on their jobs they were not Christians.

It was declared that if the world had practiced the gospel as preached by St. Paul the tent maker, there would never have been any trouble as between labor and capital.

Prof. Garren was introduced by Thomas Hodson, foreman of the car department of the local L. & N. shops. Mr. Hodson having taken the place of C. W. Matthews, president of the class, who was out of the cities. The usual song service was rendered the hymns being led by C. L. Shook with Miss Mary Carden, piano accompanist.

DARROW CONTINUES HIS PLEA FOR MERCY

(Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Aug. 25—Character analysis, based on heredity and environment was the theme of Clarence S. Darrow today as he pleaded anew before Judge John R. Caverly for the lives of Richard Loeb and Nathan Leopold, co-killers and murderers of Robert Franks.

"The weird, mad act," of the youths was mentioned only incidentally as the veteran of the American bar went back to the crime itself to trace from childhood the influence which had surrounded his clients.

The effect of these, he acknowledged could not be told with certainty but limits of human knowledge were blamed for that.

Wealth, opening the doors to no ways, which led to denial of desire, "was the terrible misfortune in this terrible case," Mr. Darrow said, and then he took up the faces of each of the boys, starting with Loeb.

WOMAN CHOSEN BY TEXAS DEMOCRATS FOR GOVERNORSHIP

Mrs. Ferguson Takes Long Step Toward 'Vindication'

KLAN CANDIDATE RECEIVES DEFEAT

Party Wondering What Effect On Election In Fall Will Be

(Associated Press.)

DALLAS, Tex., Aug. 25—Mrs. Myriam A. Ferguson, of Temple, wife of former Governor James E. Ferguson, was the democratic nominee for governor of Texas today, returns from Saturday's run-off primary giving her a victory by a majority of more than 80,000 votes over Felix D. Robertson, of Dallas, endorsed by the Ku Klux Klan.

Returns tabulated by the Texas election bureau at ten o'clock last night, the latest available, gave Mrs. Ferguson 403,060, Robertson 324,329. These figures were from 230 out of the 252 counties, 67 being complete. Mrs. Ferguson, at Temple, received a telegram yesterday from Robertson, congratulating her on her victory.

The woman candidate also issued a statement in which she said that chances for a democratic victory would be increased manifold if the people could be made to understand that the democratic platform "condemning religious intolerance means as everybody knows it does mean emphatic opposition to the Ku Klux Klan."

A large part of the democratic party tried today to figure out how it happened that Mrs. Ferguson was nominated. Her supporters were jubilant. Her opponents mourned. All speculated more or less on whether Texas politics will run true to form and the democratic nominee will be elected in November without much further effort and trouble.

Mrs. Ferguson and her husband, James E. Ferguson, who conducted her campaign, regarded the results of the primary as a big step forward in their fight for vindication of Mr. Ferguson, who was impeached when he was governor. They said they were in the campaign only because of that judgment and because they sought to clear their name for themselves and grandchildren.

At no time during the tabulation of the vote by the Texas election bureau was Mrs. Ferguson behind, although when some of the returns from Dallas, her opponent's home, and other cities came in, her lead was cut to a small margin. She quickly made up the loss, however, and consistently held to first place.

The question in the minds of politicians today was what will the Ku Klux Klan do now? The issue in the gubernatorial race decided Saturday was clearly Klan and anti-Klan. Each side made a supreme effort to muster maximum strength and control Texas democratic politics. The anti-Klan won. A question today was whether an independent candidate will be put in the race for governor before November and try to draw the vote of the Klan and of democrats who may not be entirely satisfied. The republicans declare they will make an effort to capture dissatisfied democrats.

SET OF QUESTIONS TO CANDIDATES IS DRAWN BY COUNCIL

Albany Committee Has Made Its Report To Organization

FINE ADDRESS BY DR. GLASGOW

President of the Athens College Speaks At Sunday Meeting

Early this week one of the committees named some weeks ago by the Men's Christian Council of Albany and Decatur will make public a set of questions, which the council hopes will be answered by candidates for office in the city of Albany. It is expected that a committee appointed by the council some weeks ago to present similar questions to those running for office in Decatur will make public its report at an early date, and that committee will doubtless make substantially the same request of candidates for office in Decatur, it is said.

Decision to make public the questionnaire of the Christian Council for Albany was made Sunday afternoon following the reading of a set of resolutions, adopted unanimously as read by Judge L. P. Troup, chairman of the Albany committee of the council. Following a preamble in which it is made clear that the council does not propose to enter city politics, the following nine requests were made: that all houses of ill fame be closed; that as regards the prohibition laws that it be made as much a crime to buy liquors as to sell them; that all public beggars who go from house to house shall have permission to do so from an official of the city; that the Sabbath be so kept that all may have opportunity to attend church at least once on Sunday; that a curfew law effective at sunset be passed; that such amusements be furnished as are wholesome; that suitable playgrounds be maintained; that the city parks be beautified; that the women and children be guarded most carefully from "insult and injury."

The council directed that Judge L. P. Troup, R. L. Maury, and W. L. Hatchett shall have the complete text of the resolutions and questionnaire as adopted, printed in the Albany-Decatur Daily.

The disposal of the communication to candidates, was the chief business disposed of at the Christian council meeting Sunday afternoon which was held at the Ninth Street Methodist church, with a good sized company present. The council will meet next month at the First Baptist church of Albany.

Powerful Address By Glasgow Declaring that "the simple Gospel is no Gospel at all, when only generalities are dealt in, with the fires of hell burning at our very doors," Dr. B. B. Glasgow president of Athens College, in the course of the principal address at the Christian Council meeting, severely arraigned those who discouraged "the political persons who seek to apply the principles of Christianity."

Dr. Glasgow explained that the land in which Christ moved had no political status and that hence He spoke of no political reforms; but that Christ's fore-runner such as Isaiah were active in the politics of the independent Jewish nation. Dr. Glasgow declared that the "rule or ruin politicians" had been able to climb into power in America because of the neglect of so-called "good citizens," who felt themselves "above" political matters.

Dr. Glasgow said the idea of a government of the people by the people and for the people was a great and glorious one, but "it is the most dangerous kind of a conception, if the

MORE MEN ARE PUT ON AT THE SHOPS

With close to 50 new men employed this morning at the local Louisville and Nashville shops and with well sustained rumors to the effect that the entire shops will go on full time six days to the week, business interests give promise of great activity for the fall and winter.

On Saturday three departments at the shops, the paint, sheet metal and ear departments worked full time, whereas, for sometime these departments have worked only five days per week.

Reports that the local shops would be running six days a week, with increased forces, remain unconfirmed as shop authorities are out of the cities who were expected to confirm or deny the reports. From the number of long freight trains now on the Louisville and Nashville road, indications are that business is picking up all along the line.

JOINT FUNERAL FOR VICTIMS OF STORM

(Associated Press)

VICHERIE, La., Aug. 25—Joint funeral services will be held in the new St. Phillips-Catholic church today for the eight victims of a windstorm, which demolished the old church here yesterday afternoon, while a crowd was gathering for a church festival.

The community was bowed in sorrow over the tragedy. The dead are all members of prominent families of this French Catholic community and related to many in the countryside. Among the score of injured, little hope was held for the recovery of Miss Mary Haydel, member of a family of whom three were killed outright and another injured.

Steven Haydel, 53, his wife, 50, and their son Steven Jr., 34, were dead when heavy timbers were removed from them.

He was picked up 125 miles east of Cape Farewell. The Italian flier and his companion were uninjured, although worn out by fatigue.

Motor trouble had forced Locatelli to come down on the water during the flight on Thursday from Reykjavik, Iceland. He was unable to bring his plane into the air again and drifted for 100 miles. Locatelli requested that his airplane be destroyed and his wish was complied with.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25—The American world fliers today prepared at Iqvitut for another hazardous lap in their journey, a 500-mile jump across waters to Indian Harbor, Labrador.

Meager reports received at the navy department last night told of the flight of Lieutenants Smith and Nelson from Frederiksdal to Iqvitut, presumably yesterday, in two hours and 19 minutes.

The Louisville and Nashville Shopmen drew the laurel wreath on Saturday afternoon when they concluded a summer long fight for a topmost perch in the Y. M. C. A. Industrial League. The Shopmen gained a victory over the Cornicemen 6-3 while the Daily succumbed to a last minute attack of the Power folks 11-9.

The first game of the regular doubleheader had a decided Daily aspect until the final inning when the Power folks launched a terrific hitting attack and counted seven runs after one man was down. Seven hectic blows one of them a home run by Strane provided a lead for the Power folks the Daily succumbed to a last minute in their last half. Bloodworth pitched a nice game for the Daily until the last inning when he seemed unable to locate the plate and gave way to Safley who struck out two men for the final putouts.

Gunn was hit freely in the first innings but tightened up in the latter part of the game and held the Daily hitters at bay. The loss by the Daily people places them in second place with the Shopmen half a game in front. The feature of the game was three double plays engineered in the Daily infield during the first three innings.

Shopmen-Cornicemen
With Ezell opposing Odum on the hill the Shopmen gained a victory by a 6-3 score. Odum was in good form but his support wobbled with men on bases and an early lead was too great for the Cornicemen to overcome.

Ezell pitched a steady game for the Shopmen and was accorded good support. He kept the few hits well scattered until the fifth and sixth in-

Unable longer to make the weight—126 pounds—Johnny Dundee, world's champion featherweight, has surrendered his title to the New York State Boxing Commission. The forty-four boys of Decatur and Albany who went on the Y. M. C. A. camp for two days last Thursday and Friday are all back safe and sound. Everybody had a swell time during this outing, because there was something doing all the time. The major sport among the boys was that of swimming, which took place morning and evening. The swimming hole was big enough, deep enough, as well as shallow enough to accommodate the desires of all. Life in camp consisted of various games from morning until late at night. Aside from this the young fellows busied themselves with making individual fires at meal time, and cooking their own meals. The meals that those boys cooked would make anybody's mouth water.

A special feature of the camp which the boys enjoyed immensely was the devotional service held each morning by Mr. W. R. Spight and Dr. James D. Hunter respectively. Mr. Spight dwelt on the subject of the development of the Spirit, Mind and Body, while Dr. Hunter emphasized the importance of giving service to our fellow beings in this world.

There were a lot of visitors at the camp both Thursday and Friday. They streamed in from five o'clock in the morning until nine o'clock at night. Most of them were parents, sisters, and brothers to the campers, while a good many were business men of Decatur-Albany interested in the welfare and happiness of the boys. Among the visitors were W. W. Rahm, J. L. Proctor and wife, Mr. Pugh, the Arvidson immediately appointed three judges and set up a standard for the winner, the standard being obedience, cleanliness, politeness, sociability and service to others. The winner of this prize from Mr. Rahm is W. C. Hughes, and the prize is one whole weeks attendance at the Princess theater. Mr. Ratcliffe, manager of the Princess, when he heard of this, decided he would go one better than Mr. Rahm, so he offered to give away two more tickets to his theater. Winners of these tickets are the Messrs. Robin Hildreth and Robert Cobb.

A DAILY PRAYER.—We pray Thee to cleanse our hearts; for we know that only the pure in heart shall see Thee.

It would be interesting to learn just why grain prices began to soar, on the eve of the national elections.

The Germans have adopted the lowly occupation of borrowing money; but a very exalted one, to their foul methods of waging war.

The corrupting influence of the World war touched everything in the world. Our language was one of the many institutions to suffer from the effects of the war. And no word in the language, perhaps, suffered as greatly as has the word "propaganda." That word as first used meant about opposite what it has meant since the war. It was connected then with the efforts of the Christian church to propagate the gospel. One of the first Christian mission boards was called the "Congregation of Propaganda."

Once "propaganda" meant something exalted now it refers to discredited things, until all that has to be said of a statement to discredit it, is to refer to it as "propaganda." One evil effect following the degradation of the word is that where people wish to put forth arguments based on facts it is a common practice to disregard the facts and denounce all unpleasant matter as "propaganda," it being so much easier to discredit statements than to disprove them.

Those who have unsound and untrue ideas to put forth lose nothing by the fall of the word propaganda; but those who have what they believe to be truth and faithful statements suffer greatly; for as long as propaganda continues to bear the idea of suspicion and distrust, whatever is propagated can be discredited with ease.

The coinage of words is being constantly debased, but as the coinage of money is debased the meaning and significance of words is constantly changing, until it is more than a truism to say: "mere words."

The Associated Press dispatch sent out from Birmingham Sunday brings the Ford bid into the lime light again, after several weeks of vacation for that important matter. The dispatch claims that all is planned and all but settled that Mr. Ford shall have Muscle Shoals, following his recent visit with President Coolidge.

The original writer of the dispatch does not say in so many words, that he knows exactly whereof he speaks, but it is assumed that the time and expense necessary to put such a dispatch at the disposal of many thousands of readers, unless it were a reliable one.

There are so many slips between the cup and the lips—especially does this old saying seem true as to the Ford bid—that most people will decide to wait and see, rather than take the statement as the final word in the hitherto rather discouraging history of the fight for the acceptance of the Ford bid. But the dispatch should serve to arouse the pro-Ford soldiers, and to remind them that the battle is still on, which, if won by those representing the people's interests, will mean a new earth for this section of the nation and a better industrial world for the entire nation.

The opponents of the Ford bid stand with those who are satisfied with present conditions and who "view with alarm" such a future as the advent of Ford into Tennessee Valley may bring forth. Such are timid, if not actually selfish. Let Ford come on and try his hand. If he makes a billion or ten of them, why worry, for those who help him make his money will share in the new prosperity. And the way Ford does business, who will not share in the benefits? He is given up to be the man who can create more wealth at the Shoals than any other man or set of men. It has never been shown after years of faithful effort on the part of its enemies, that there was anything radically wrong with his famous bid, so why not let the terms of that bid be put into effect. Eventually Ford must be the "hired man" at Muscle Shoals, so why not hire him as soon as possible.

One of the alert New York reporters discovered a "floating cafe" beyond the twelve-mile limit the other day, and it has created any amount of comment, especially by critics of the prohibition enforcement agents. It is reported that the mystery ship, as it is now called, is a former North German Lloyd liner, and that high old times mark the doings aboard. She is anchored well beyond the prohibited limit so as to insure being legally on the high seas and immune from seizure. Wet-minded citizens who resolve on boarding the vessel have to take an ocean trip. It is stated that, despite the time, nerve and bulging bank-roll required to participate in the joy-ride, the vessel was crowded a day or two after it was learned that she was prepared for business. Such news, under the circumstances, travels fast, and it was soon a case of first come, first served.

That so large a number of Americans should scramble over one another to participate in a wild night on the billows suggests something in human nature which prompts doing that which is prohibited. Poe calls it the "Imp of the Perverse." Soldiers have said that frequently war prisoners had no desire to poke their hands through prison barriers until they were forbidden, then ran every risk of being shot in order to disobey this simple order. While a craving for alcohol frequently whets the thirst, the temptation of adventure and the craze for doing something dangerous and different, in a word, the thrill, is apt to have more or less effect in such loings.

The excitement and publicity are likely to increase for a while the fashion of taking trips to the floating alcoholic city on the high seas beyond the reach of Uncle Sam's strong arm. A joy-ship has long been bruited. It is beyond the financial reach of the average citizen; but in a great city like New York, there is always sufficient patronage to be profitable, at least until competition becomes sharp and the novelty wears off.—Age Herald.

Gentlemen with sporting tendencies will be inclined to get on Davis and Bryan this year. In a sporting way they have good reason for counting upon Democratic success. Chief among the reasons is the record of the past in presidential campaigns. Looking back, they find that Democratic success always has followed when the national election was held on November 4, the day it falls upon this year.

This augury for Democratic success is brought to the front interestingly by the Florence Times, which says:

Some of the newspapers are pointing out as a matter of augury for the election of Davis, that every time, since the birth of the Democratic party, that the election has fallen upon November 4, a Democrat has been elected. Four elections have fallen upon this date during this period, and the people voted into the presidency Andrew Jackson, James Buchanan, Grover Cleveland and Woodrow Wilson. On the only other occasion in the nation's history that the election fell upon November 4, Thomas Jefferson was elected, and his principles are enunciated as those of the Democratic party. These coincidences will add a measure to the interest in the election to be held this fall, and in the meantime may afford those Democrats of a superstitious turn of mind some comfort.

There are, however, other and better reasons why the Democratic party will be triumphant of John W. Davis for president and Charles W. Bryan for vice president. The other reasons existed before these nominations were made. Probably the chief reason why Democrats will win this year is the very general demand of the American people that the government be restored to honesty and to service for the people. The Republican platform and the Republican nominees hold out no promise that such restoration will be made under continued Republican control of the government.—Anniston Star.

Will Succeed General Pershing as Army Chief.

Tom Gibbons Is Back, Minus the "Jack."

Tom Gibbons, of St. Paul, has returned from London, where he knocked Bloomfield, the English heavyweight, kicking in three rounds. Gibbons received only one-third of the promised $55,000 purse, the promoter going into bankruptcy. He was full of praise, nevertheless, of the treatment accorded him by the English.

people do not live up to their privileges."

The speaker adopted the scripture as read by Rev. A. L. Mathison, where the trees are represented as asking the fig bushes, the vines, etc., to rule over them, declaring as he quoted from the passages read by Rev. Mathison, that he was wondering if they actually appeared in the Bible, the speaker saying they sounded to him like they came out of the local daily paper. The scripture used represented the vines and fig bushes as declining to rule and as making excuses therefor, and Dr. Glasgow said just people would not serve on jury duty if they could avoid it, and who "would not walk four blocks to vote, their sworn duty."

The council was opened by W. L. Hatchett, president of the council promptly at 3:30 o'clock p. m. who asked Rev. Mathison to take charge of the devotional exercises. The minutes of the previous meeting were read by Secretary J. F. Lovin and adopted. It was following the business session, that Dr. Glasgow made his address.

PRAISES ROADS

The main pike roads in Indiana are of concrete, with and without asphalt covering, stated D. A. Draper of the Malone Coal and Grain company, upon his return today from an extended visit to relatives near Indianapolis. Mr. Draper said that the less used roads are built of "river gravel" and that such roads are "fast," to the extent that 40 to 50 miles an hour are made on them. He said the gravel roads are repaired after every heavy rain. Corn crops in Indiana were late this year, said Mr. Draper.

DANCE AT ELK'S HOME

One of the most enthusiastic and enjoyable dances of the summer season was given at the Elk's home on Friday evening.

The Southern Ramblers of Birmingham furnished excellent jazz, and a large crowd was in attendance, many automobile parties, coming from Decatur, Albany, Athens, Courtland, Mt. Pleasant, Columbia and Huntsville.

The chaperones were: Mrs. F. A. Johnston, Mrs. R. L. Glenn, Mrs. John Pointer, Mrs. John Knight of Albany and Mrs. Lon Tenison. —Muscle Shoals Sunday News.

AFTERNOON ROOK

Wolfe, Henry Davis, Robert Gray, J. W. Thornton, Felix Robinson, E. E. Peden, J. R. Doss, R. M. Buchanan, Howard and Miss Edith Doss. High score in the game was made by Mrs. O. P. Stinson. THE CAN PARTY.

The can party given at the home of Mrs. W. H. Winton on Grant street Friday night by the Y. P. M. S. of the Central Methodist church was a decided success. Many cans of fruit were received and will be sent to the Eva Comer home in Birmingham. The lawn was attractive with many lanterns and electric lights. A large company attended and enjoyed games and contests throughout the evening. The most exciting of all was a "can" contest in which Mrs. W. H. Winton and Mrs. J. H. Brannum were the successful contestants and were forced to cut their own medals of reward from a tin can, this they did and proudly strung them on a string and wore them around their necks. Following the contests punch and wafers were served.

THE BABY PARADE

One of the most attractive as well as beautiful features of the get-together Community Barbecue and picnic, which is to be held at Malone Park on September 11 is the baby parade. It is to be hoped that the mothers of the Twin Cities and surrounding country will begin making plans at once to make entrants. The committee hopes to have at least 100 children seven years and under in the parade, each having a decorated doll buggy and doll. Judges will be appointed and a prize will be given for the most attractive baby buggy. Mothers are urged to begin plans now to have the children take part in the parade. More definite plans and details will be announced later. The mothers by cooperation can make this the great event of the picnic occasion.

How to build up your Weight

To be under weight often proves low fighting-power in the body. It often means you are minus nerve-power, minus red-cells in your blood, minus health, minus vitality. It is serious to be minus, but the moment you increase the number of your red-blood-cells, you begin to become plus.

That's why S.S.S., since 1876, has meant to thousands of underweight men and women, a plus in their strength. Your body fills to the point of power, your flesh becomes firmer, the age lines that come from thinness disappear. You look younger, firmer, happier, and you feel it, too, all over your body. More red-blood-cells! S.S.S. will build them.

S.S.S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.

MEN AND WOMEN IN NEWS OF THE DAY.

Frances A. Milne, Julia Varnock, Andre Citroen, John V. Weeks

Secretary of War John W. Weeks has suggested that citizens' committees in charge of local work in connection with "Defense Day," September 11, should give "the position of honor" to organizations of war mothers. Much mystery surrounds the death of Julia Varnock, 30-year-old beauty, who was found dead in her bathtub in New York City, physicians asserting that she did not die a natural death. Frances A. Milne, 18-year-old New York City dancer, eloped with Andre Citroen, 35-year-old of Portland, Me., repeated of it half an hour later, and now seeks an annulment, charging the groom with fraud, because, she says, he told her he had an income of $1,000 a week. Andre Citroen, the Henry Ford of France, is credited with winning 10,000,000 francs in one night playing baccarat at Deauville, France.

New York Letter

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—The point may be reached where judicial dignity gives way like any other to the strain of summer weather. Magistrate Goodman, sitting in an uptown city court is as deferential to judicial tradition as anyone could be, but yesterday was too much for him. After standing the swelter as long as he could, he not only discarded his robe, but his civilian coat and vest as well, and permitted the other officers of the court, the witnesses and even the prisoners to do likewise.

No wonder women seem to look younger that they used to. A New York department store has taken a survey of the aids to feminine beauty that are carried on its shelves. In this one store, they number over six thousand. Many hundreds of these are practically duplicates of course. For instance there are 1,675 kinds of powder and 452 kinds of soap. But even in variety, they number large, and with a few hundred aids to hair, complexion, figure, eyes, it would almost seem up to any of us to doll up to pretty good effect.

Coney Island has become the official summering place for eastern college boys and some from pretty far west, at least for those who put in their summer at remunerative occupations. Probably three fourths of the attendants, attendants meaning general workers around the place, are boys who tread the campuses from September to June. "Working for our Ph. D." is the way the boys describe their jobs. "Ph. D. is 'Perfection in Hot Dogs.'"

The most interesting opera company in this city at the present time is one that is playing down in the old Bowery theater to packed houses. It is the Chinese Grand Opera company and Princess Can Wei Fong, a Manchurian, is the prima donna. The company's repertoire consists of two of the best operas relating to the high and ancient China. The costumes and scenery are beautiful, says on native and the orchestra company has been instrumental in six months and efforts have been made to arouse sufficient interest in opera goers of the city to bring it uptown.
